

Clay Pigeon Shooting on the Thames

An exclusive five hour cruise hosting from 10 – 90 people, departing most Piers along the Thames. Westminster to Canary Wharf or the O2 Arena.

Cruise down river through London and the Thames Barrier to Thames Mead, where your clay pigeon shoot will begin.

The timings of the day can be tailored to your needs, the time cruising can also be extended if you need more time. Our only stipulation is that we need daylight for clay shooting!

With fully stocked bars on all our boats, as well as extensive wine and champagne lists, be assured that we can accommodate all tastes and budgets.

Cuisines range from Canapés and finger food, BBQ, Hog Roast or Hot Fork Buffets to Silver Service Bowl Buffets and celebrity chef silver service for up to 20 guests.

The Clay Pigeon Shooting takes place at Thames mead where our experienced and friendly instructors can take care of the most novice of shooters and allow a more relaxed hand to the experienced shots in the group. Our experienced team will look after you every step of the way.

With over 5 years experience hosting these events – we assure you of a smooth running event to remember for all the right reasons.
